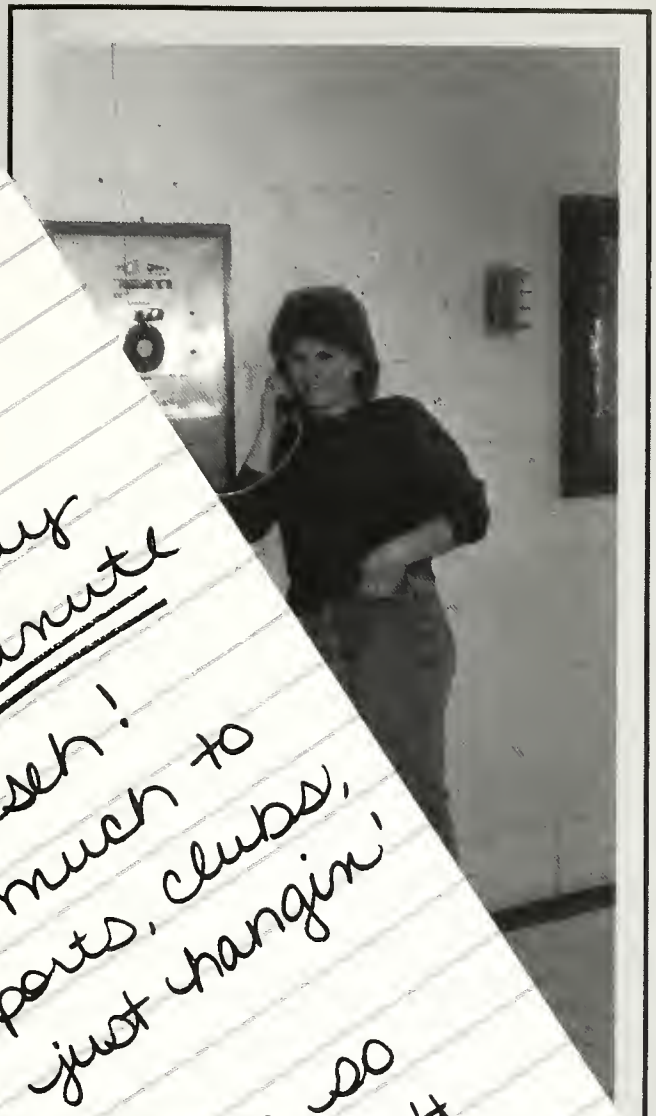
SPIRIT



Dear Grandma,
I'm really
Lovin' Every Minute
of Tecumseh!
There is so much to do here. Sports, clubs, dances or just hangin'
out. There is so much to tell. I don't know where to begin...

Spirit Week Causes Craziness

Spirit week started on October 14. The week was shortened because of the Friday off, but students didn't let that dampen their spirits. From day one people dressed up to help get into the mood of the week.

Student council once again sponsored the dance and the general week. They decided on what days to dress up and what to wear on those days. This year the days were a mixture of new and old. New were the Baby Day and Twins Day. Old were the Nerd Day and Red and Black day.

Once again this year the Nerd Day seem to be everyones favorite. Most students just had to rummage through their parents closets to find the perfect costume. Twins Day had a few surprises of its own, when real twin brothers changed places for the day and no one knew the difference.

All in all the week was a good one. Students forgot their commentments to just have fun. And that's what its all about.

Tecumseh's first class nerds. They came straight from newspaper workshop. Oh boy!! Say CHEESE!!!!!!!!

"Underclassmen do it best," Allan and Mike seem to think.

Caroline and Yoshisir get all bug-eyed at each other.

Chris Daly and his . . . twin (poor thing) on twin day.

On baby day some people were glad not to leave their dolls at home.

The biggest and best pep rally. Students attended the rally to get into the mood for spirit week. The Arrowettes helped too. "Gimme a W!"

Thursday

Two traditions were revived this year, as the Thursday night festivities were resumed. The first of these activities was Powder Puff, the all-girl football game between the seniors and juniors. Next was the Bonfire.

Both of these activities have been cancelled since the '82-'83 school year for reasons beyond our control.

This year though, the students were not going to let anything ruin their Homecoming week.

The girls were decked out in Senior Red and Junior Black. The girls had lots of fun and plenty of support. Highlights of the game included the debut of the Arrowettes.

Senior defensive team members cheer on their teammates as they make a first down.

Quarterback Nancy Burnett hands off to Sheli Grimpe in the last quarter.

The 1985-86 Arrowettes stack up to root on the girls' Powder Puff teams.

Fans and cheerleaders alike, get rowdy at the bon fire.

Tom Sawvel and Todd Morris start the first bonfire in two years — then the cheerleaders led the cheers.

Tracy Adkins carries the ball for the junior team.

The centerfold pose of the dearly-loved Arrowettes.

Here's the victorious junior team after they win in the sudden-death playoff of the Powder Puff game.

Homecoming Comes To Life

Crowned before the homecoming game — Gina King and Yoshi Tanimoto look into the crowd of students that voted them queen and king.

Tayo and Katrina love to be together on their favorite day — NERD DAY.

On the Tuesday of spirit week, the nerds at Tecumseh showed their true colors. Above: Marky Holbrook, Stevie Miller, and Kenneth Clark wait to go to lunch. Right: The Pfarrer Brothers, Aaron and Jon show that "nerdness" runs in the family.

Monday was baby day at THS. Rusty Randall is throwing a fit because Sheli Grimpe tried to take his balloons. Poor Rusty!!!!!!

Big Tom Sawvel breaks through the banner to lead the Arrows on to the field.

These soccer cheerleaders know how to make the guys feel good.

Scott, Kevin, and Clark all add to the wild and craziness at the homecoming game.

Friday

This year's hall decorating and float building occured during the week of October 14. Students from each class had a week prior to that to come up with and design their float and hall decorations.

As the floats began to take shape, student's spirits rose. Threats of sabotage and cheating, common to the event, started to make the event more memorable.

Each class also had to decorate their respective hallways. Students had to incorperate the homecoming theme into their decorations. After the best ideas were thought out students then had to make or purchase their designs. These few days gave hundreds of memories to this year's participants.

Here's a sight not many people saw. A huge 87 covered the entrance of the junior hallway.

The sophomore hallway.

Seniors let the underclassmen know whose territory they're in.

Seniors dress up for the big day!!

The senior class members cheer on their float in the traditional pre-game parade.

Tory Cooper helps show the '87 spirit, as the winning float appears.

The combined efforts of the freshmen and sophomores classes created this float to show that Tecumseh has a "Touch of Class".

Gary Stitzel pulled the 88-87 float, while students cheered.

A Touch Of Class

Was definitely a well suited theme for this years home coming festivities in which the junior class dominated both the hall decorations and the float competition.

This year's homecoming court consisted of the usual three queen candidates which were Gina King, Carla Blanton, and Tammy Brackett. Also chosen to fill the king candidates spots were Scott Bennett, Yoshi Tanimoto, and David Cane. The homecoming Court also includes junior, sophomore, and freshman representatives which were Lori Woosley, Nickey Hayes and Tetra Inman. Their attendants were Todd Morris, Darrin Garret, and Steve Britton. The Tecumseh student body chose Gina King as Queen and Yoshi Tanimoto as King.

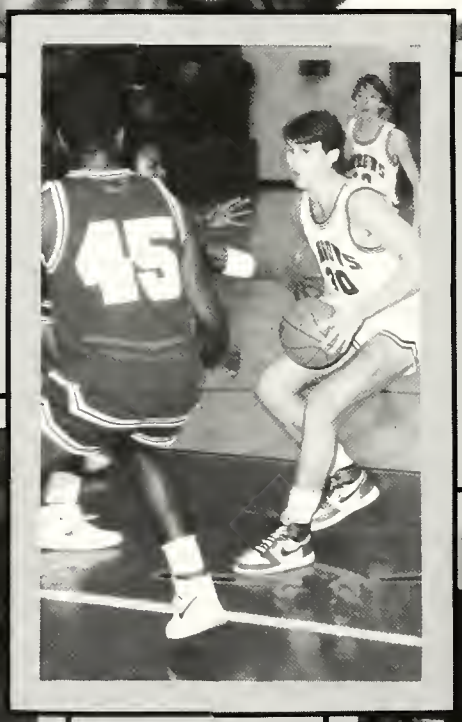
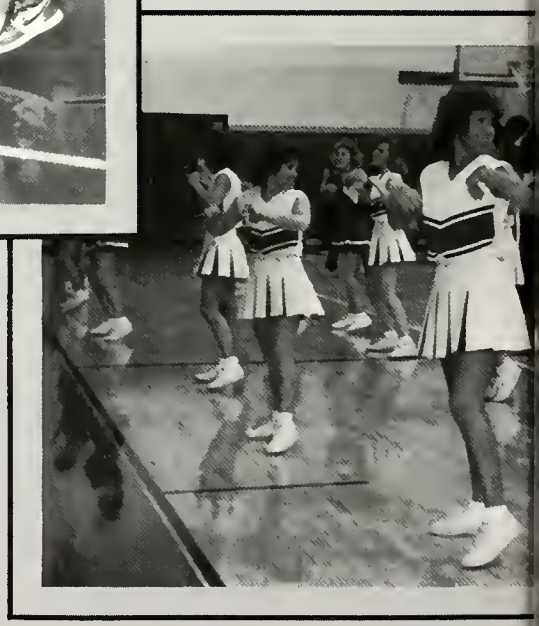
Last year's queen Sunny Collins waits patiently for the decision.





And Grandma, I'm
Lovin' Every Minute
of Sports!

Both boys and girls can try out for the teams.
And there are so many to choose from. It was so exciting when...

FOOTBALL

The 1985 football season was lead by a new head coach, Mr. Dwight Miller. "The team was very young and inexperienced this year but many sophomores had the opportunity to gain the much needed experience by playing varsity ball," Mr. Miller said.

The special awards went to Ron Christmann, Jeff Holt, Tom Sawvel, Joe Herdman, and Cliff Lockhart.

Ron Christmann received 1st team G.M.V.C., 2nd team offense All Southwest District, 1st team All-county, and 1st team All-area. Jeff Holt received honorable mention G.M.V.C. and 1st team All-county offense. Tom Sawvel received 2nd team G.M.V.C. as an offensive lineman. Cliff Lockhart and Joe Herdman received special mention.

"Everyone involved is looking forward to 1986 and a much improved team," said Coach Miller.

Ron Christman received other awards later in the year.

The freshman football team had a very competitive season this year, beating Greenville and Sidney 41-6, 16-0 respectively. The league contender Northmont came back late in the fourth quarter to beat the Arrows 22-20.

Coach Rutan was pleased with the season commenting that "Our best game was the last game and we reached our goal by showing improvement in each game.

Volleying It Up!!

Although the losses outnumbered the wins, the team did bring some exciting victories like the win against Greenville. The team defeated Greenville for the first time in four years. Adding to the wins, the team went on to defeat Springfield North and Northmont with double wins against Trotwood and Sidney.

In district tournament action the Arrows started out slow, losing the first game of the match 15 to 3, but they came on strong in the second game. After being behind 13 to 2 they fought back to win 16 to 14.

The varsity team ended with a final season record of 7-15 and with the GMVC record at 5-9.

Individual honors go to Tammy Schiller for first team GMVC and honorable mention District 9 and to Mindy Yeazel for second team GMVC and District 9 Senior All-Star team along with Susan Atwood.

Tracy Cooper (Squeak!) ready for anything.

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team of '85 was coached by Ms. Amy Brooks. The girls started their practices during the last two weeks of summer vacation. They worked hard for their wins before and during the official season. The team consisted of five juniors, six sophomores, and two freshman.

"The learning of a new multiple offense took its toll in a few matches, but with PRIDE — DETERMINATION — and THE WANT TO WIN the J.V. team ended their season in good standings above the 500 mark," said Ms. Brooks.

"Probably the major problem this year was that we were unable to field the same team," coach Gary Carter explained. "With a number of injuries and illnesses throughout the year, the same 11 guys never started."

The arrows were led this year by senior Bill Russell (MVP), Steve Miller (MIP) to a 3-10-1 season. It was a tough year for the Arrows having a very young team with only six seniors and four juniors (one which had a broken leg). Kevin Hammonds was awarded the most spirited player and Gary Sisco walked away with the most promising player award.

Hot on the Trail

The Cross Country team faced many tough competitors. They usually ran three to five miles each night, sometimes more. The boys team finished the year with a 3-9 record. The girls team finished the year with a perfect 7-0 record. Many runners, or Harriers, on both teams had season and personal bests.

The runners are called Harriers because it is in reference to running as swift as a rabbit. This was proven true by outstanding performances by Joe Britton, Dianne Alig and Heather Kinney. Joe finished the 3.1 mile course in just 17:43 minutes against Sidney. Dianne was chosen first team all Clark County and second team all-GMVC. Heather was also chosen first team all Clark County and second team all-GMVC.

Kathy McDorman hustles her way to the finish line to beat her opponents. This was a seasonal best for the team.

For the First Time in 19 years . . .

December 10th is a date that most of us will never forget. This was the night the Arrows beat the South Wildcats, 78-73. The Arrows broke a 19 year tradition of losing to South.

Another super game was against Trotwood when we beat them in overtime, 72-71. The game at Greenville was another highlight of the season. It was here that Andy Arnott hit his career high of 39 points and we beat the Waves 93-88.

GMVC tournaments were also pretty great this year. For the first time in 19 years, we advanced to the Finals. This means that we defeated Greenville, and North, but were stopped by first seed Meadowdale.

Arrow fans played a very supportive role in this season's success. Coach Castin said that the crowd was, "Probably one of the most enthusiastic and most instrumental crowds I have ever seen. It was a thrill for me just to be out on the floor and see the support our crowd gave our players. They're the BEST!"

J.V. Basketball Hysteria

The 1985-86 JV basketball season was highlighted by wins over Northmont and Greenville, both tough GMVC opponents.

Despite their record of 2-18 "the young men on the reserve team were always the best of individuals, always tried hard, and played to win," stated Coach Terry Zeller.

Freshman Hoopsters

The freshmen boy's basketball squad had a slow start this year. As freshmen the guys played more as individuals than playing as a team.

"Once we started winning our confidence built more and more. We won five of our last eight; and in the process we improved our game," said Coach Dan Estepp.

In the tournament THS drew Greenville and won, but lost to Trottwood Madison in OT 59-55. Their final record was 5-8.

Arrows Shoot 'Em DOWN

"The lady Arrows showed much improvement this year" stated Coach Bob Rutan. After a 1-20 record last year the ladies put up an impressive 9-12 season this year. The ladies suffered a few tuff losses, losing to Greenville 43-41, and a heartbreaking tournament loss to Springfield North in overtime 59-53.

The ladies were led this year by junior Tammy Graham and sophomore Tammy Schiller, both receiving several awards. Tammy Graham received News Sun player of the week, All County, second team All Conference, District 9 All Star Team. Tammy Schiller got District 9 all Star Team, Special Mentin All Conference, News Sun Player of the Week, Most Efficient Player Award, Best Free Throw Shooter Award.

WRESTLEMANIA

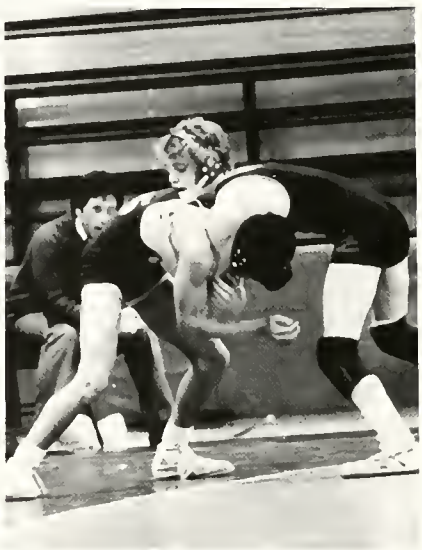
As the minutes of each period went by, the wrestlers got more anxious to pin their guy! The Arrows were led by seniors Scott Sparks, Jon Pfarrer and Cliff Lockhardt, sophomores Carl and Kevin Miller, and freshman Mike Bolton in their 1985-86 season. They had a record of 1 and 6 in the GMVC. The coaches were Tom Jones and Chris Dover.

The Arrows hosted the Clark County tournament where they placed third out of seven teams. First place victors were Cliff Lockhardt, and Carl Miller. Ninety-eight pounder, Mike Bolton placed first in the Troy Tourney, GMVC, and the following week was victorious at districts. Carl and Kevin Miller placed fourth in districts and Cliff Lockhardt placed third. These four teammates went on to regionals. "The outcome was a little disappointing. None of the four wrestlers qualified for state, but Mike Bolton came very close. I am very pleased, though, due to the fact that three of the four boys return next year to try again," said Coach Tom Jones.

Honored by the Springfield Sun were Mike Bolton, Denver Bazzel, and Paul Mullinex for Wrestlers' of the week.

Overall the Arrows had an excellent season. They are all looking forward to the 1986-87 season. Goodluck!

Arnold Jones applys pressure in a comeback victory over the Indians.



Bolton, co-most valuable, is pulling his man in bounds. Mike took three titles!

Is it time yet coach Cliff, co-most valuable, is a victor at Piqua!

We "Love" Girls' Tennis!

Everyone should agree that the girls tennis team has come a long way. All of the girls have shared some great memories (fitting nine people in a station wagon loaded with tennis racquets and water coolers!) and learned some valuable lessons (what to wear under your tennis skirt.) Everyone on the team has improved their tennis skills and much of the credit goes to their coach. Coaching for her second year was Barb Hathaway.

Victories this year were over Piqua, Greenon, Greenview, and West Carrolton. At the GMVC tournaments, second singles Sherri McCullum won second place, first singles Debbie Marshall won third place, and winning fourth place honors were first doubles Monica Lay and Jacki Coffey. At the District tournaments, doubles team Debbie Marshall and Sherrie McCullum came in second place which moved them to the Regional Championships.

Other members of the team were third singles Teresa "Croc" Solomon, Mary Solomon, Liz Lyons, Beth Hutchins, Michele McCoy, Jennie Grisso and Vickie l Lyons.

An Ace Season for Boys Tennis

Spring is the time for buds on the trees, warm weather and best of all, boys tennis! Mike Lucas was this year's rookie coach. The guys felt that he did a great job and they learned alot. They won twice as many matches this year which is quite an accomplishment!

As you know, spring is an unpredictable season and the guys on the team should know better than the rest of us. They froze through practice the first of the season and sweated through the second half.

This year's team consisted of senior Doug Free, juniors John Sawvel, Rob Holbrook, Roy Sebring, Derek Hammonds, Chip Simpson, and Bart Suver, freshmen Kevin Oakes and Brian Wurst. Special Congratulations to Senior Doug Free for winning fourth place in the GMVC tournaments.

Third singles Brian Wurst serves up an ace!

Roy Sebring, one of the first doubles team, rises above the clouds with this forehand!

Cool Shades, Derek!!

SOFTBALL HITS HOME!

The lady Arrows had a winning season with a final record of 13 and 12. They were 4 and 10 in the league.

The team had several outstanding games. One was the Northmont game. It was a very low scoring game, but the Arrows pulled it out 3-1. The Arrows also beat Piqua 8-1, only one hit was given up and it was in the seventh inning.

The arrows won their first tournament game against Wayne 7-4, but were defeated in their second game in a sweat it out game against Sidney, 0-2.

The Arrows felt they had a good season and are looking forward to next year.

Donna Prewitt throws this one out at first.

JV Baseball

The Junior Varsity baseball team had a respectable season this spring. The team was led this year by juniors Dean Thomas (short stop), and Doug Vinyard (pitcher). The team was young and had a lot of respect for their first year coach, Sonny Morris. "We had a lot of fun," said a member of the team. The players are looking forward to the 86-87 season.

PICKING ↑ THE PACE

"The girls track team for the first time, really has a competive desire to win," quoted Coach Corbin. Mr. Corbin says he has a young team who has come a long way from a low average last year to an above average this year.

It was really exciting when Beth Hutchins and Laura Wylie made their last jumps in the long and high jump to receive first place at the Tecumseh Invitational.

The team was exceptionally happy after winning the THS Invitational here at home. The team competed in seven Invitationals and five Dual meets finishing off with a very satisfying season.

Stephanie Garrison showed fine talent and jumping hurdles, and showing concentration on her best event.

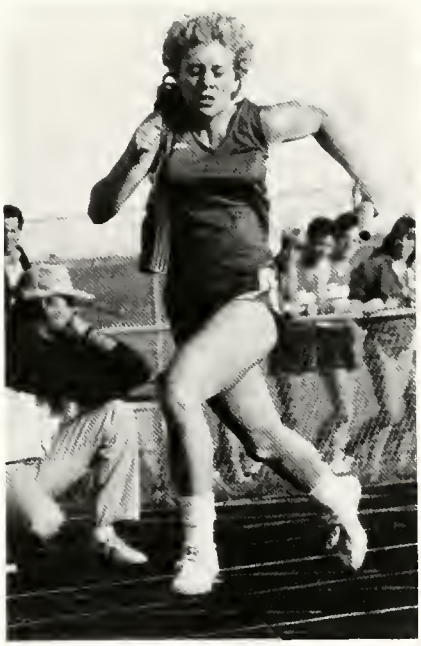
And the discs flew far when Heather Burkhardt and Lori Hyder threw all their thrust and energy into their strenuous event.

Some people just don't see how people could run so hard for such a long distance when they saw Heather Kenney, Karen Yarger, Peggy Thompson, and Tracy Adkins push hard at their long distance events.

The team just improves more and more every year. "Next year looks to be a great year", said Mr. Corbin. Most all this years runners will be here at home next year. It really looks to be a good year, and the girls will constantly be PICKING UP THE PACE!

Tracy Atkins shows her competitive spirit.

Kathy really knows how to wear out her opponent.



Robyn shows that freshmen can hustle too. Fortunately, Robyn will be with us next year.

Dianne casually shows her own swift style, while she relays at an invitational meet.

Laura Wylie pushes exceptionally hard at the high jump. Laura always shows a great competitive spirit at every event she applies herself to.

On the Right Track

The THS track team had a good season. The team was enthusiastic and kept striving for the best. They consisted of two seniors, six juniors, thirteen sophomores, and twelve freshmen. The coaches were Dwight Miller and Terry Zellar.

"They had a lot of young runners — the best is to come in the future," said Mr. Miller.

Paul runs the distance.

Todd is flying high! As he pole vaults with AWESOME style.

GOLF

"This was the best year of all my years coaching," said Coach Mike Castin. From 1982-1985 the team consecutively scored in the 190's 180's, 170's and in 1985 in the 160's. The team has been improving tremendously every year.

All team members definitely improved this year and had a good time with excellent attitudes.

For the first time ever the team brought home a 2'nd place trophy from the Bethel Invitational at Cliffside. This definitely was the big match of the season.

The five lowest-score players this season were, Mike Wardley, Darrin Rogers, Mark Holbrook, Steve Rinehart, and Richie Stagner. Everyone did well this year because everyone improved.

The tournaments turned out above average this year. The G.M.V.C. tournament turned out with a "333", and the District tournament was a good "326".

Some summer play will bring us down to the 150's.

Mike Wardley shows us how he became low-score averager this year

Senior Awards Assembly

Seniors work hard during their last year of high school. On May 13, they were rewarded for their work. That evening was the second annual Senior Awards Assembly.

Starting the evening off were the unit pricipals. They presented Tecumseh's first varsity letters for academic excellence. In order to receive this award, students had to be on the Principal's List throughout the year. That meant a grade point average of 3.7 or better. Forty-four students received this award. Those students were Tenna Ambrose, Mike Anderson, Chandra Appis, Andy Arnott, Susan Atwood, Carla Blanton, Nancy Burnett, Dee Cassidy, Brett Collins, Wes Cunningham, Chris Daly, Carol DeMent, Joe Digiorgio, Debbie Doenges, Tammy Estepp, Rhonda Gray, Terri Hochwalt, Mark Hollbrook, Carol Hoover, Eric Jarvis, Beth Ann Jones, Gina King, J.R. Kunkle, Doug Lawler, Monica Lay, Liz Lyons, Kathy McDorman, David Nawman, John Neff, Donita Pace, Eric Pencil, Lori Reinhard, Marta Rice, Steve Rinehart, Marilyn Rinker, Sandy Robinson, Mary Solomon, Kevin Stallard, Katrina Storts, Tim Tittle, and Ann Wehener.

The attendence awards were presented next. Only six students achieved this record. They were Brett Collins, Paul Gilley, Carla Herdman, Tracy LeMaster, Debbie Smith, and David Nawman.

The drama awards were given out by Mr. Copes. Receiving plaques were John Neff, Joe Schutte, Mark Hollbrook, Tayo Switzer, Jim Walker, Matt Valentine, Rich Jones, Stephen Woosley and Ann Wehner.

Teachers from each department presented their awards to outstanding students. Tenna Ambrose received recognition for Shorthand I and Typing II, Michelle Silence for Accounting I, and Elizabeth Cooper were recognized as being the two top outstanding business students.

The industrial arts teachers awarded the top three students and the prestigous Stanley Golden Hammer Award. Joe Shutte and Matt Valentine were the top students while Cary Gram won the Golden Hammer.

Marta Rice was the outstanding French student. The Math department honored Eric Pencil and Tammy Estepp for their efforts in math. Miss Brooks awarded Bill Russell and Doodle McKee with the Physical Education Award. Mr. Steele awarded a very excited Wes Cunningham with the Science Award.

Mr. Craycraft awarded the Social Studies award to Mark Holbrook and Ann Wehener. The English department presented awards to Paul Gilley, Ann Wehener, and Kay Horner for entering writing contests. Each received certificates and checks for their placements in the contests.

Mrs. Wenzlaff presented the outstanding journalism award. Katrina Storts received this award. Mrs. Wenzlaff also presented Muse Machine Award to Doug Lawler for being the top team captain of all schools. Mr. Pankake gave palques to Donita Pace and Mindy Yeazel for their efforts on the yearbook, the Trail.

After all the awards were given out, parents and students went and ate refreshments in Reynolds Cafeteria.

Mark Hollbrook rushed in after the game to accept this award from Mr. Craycraft.

Kay Horner received this certificate and a check for fifty dollars from entering a writing contest.

Mrs. Wenzlaff congradulates the new journalist of the year, Katrina Storts.

Mr. Gross helps hand out the awards. Here he gives Michelle Silence her award.

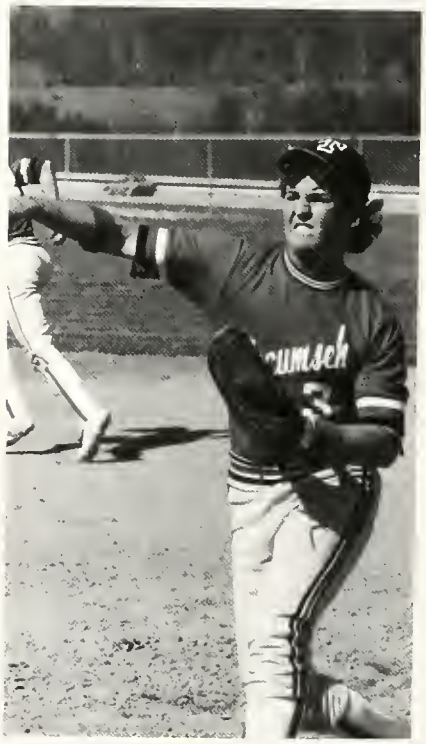
Euker hits Tecumseh with a bang!! But only Seniors really mastered the game. It was played to take up time, but it turned into a regular class.



Some Seniors had the cards, the looks, and the brains . . . but not the talent.

Mark grits his teeth while he throws a ball . . . does it help??????

Jane, Paula, and Robbin try to pass the time.

Donita, or should I say "Pappa Smurf", plays with TP.

Marilyn Rinker is tired of the picture taking, so she makes her own pose for the photographer.

One of the toughest, meanest, badest powder puff player puts on her war paint for the big game.

AND STILL MARCHING

TV 2 Eyewitness News interviews Senior Sam Profit. The topic of discussion was the heat days and what was being done to help the students.

One of the things done to relieve the students was to give out free orange juice to refresh the kids.

"Rusty, I told you once and for all . Tara is mine!!" Don't worry Clark, he has his hands full with Sheli.

Jacki and her date dance close on a slow sone. It could have been "That's What Friends Are For" or "Take My Breath Away". Both were at the top of the charts.

Doug "covergirl" Lawler uses a favorite color of eyeshadow during the musical "The Big Game".

These newspaper staff members really know how to keep their noses clean . . . they really have a nose for the news!!!!!

Kenny Clark takes a rest after a hard game with the girls.

A regular Senior Mobile sits in the parking lot.

GRADUATION: How it Really was!

Mary Solomon has the pre-ceremony jitters. Is this a sign that National Honor Society was killing her?? Don't worry it'll be over real soon.

On the next pages Mark looks super calm during his speech. But here is how he really felt during those last moments before entering the gym.

These guys are just glad that this day FINALLY arrived. George and Mark counted the days . . . but they were disappointed that they didn't have to take the government final. Weren't we all?!?!?!?!?!???

Two more of the Eggenschwiller clan are ready to leave Tecumseh. Which two they are, no one knows . . . but whoever they are they're dressed to kill . .

Renee Hawkins and Kelly Grandstaff-Staples don't want to let go . . . of the memories or of each other.

Eric Pencil is actually having trouble with something!!! He's lucky that Chandra Appis is close-by to help. You just have to be smarter than the material. No . . . EVERYONE needs a little help every now and then.

James Reilley is so glad that the ceremony is over!! Now the real fun can start.

Reality Con't . . .

Nerves were running high that day, as anyone could imagine. People couldn't get their cap on straight, others couldn't put their collars on right. Someone even got the zipper on his gown caught. The guys weren't able to breathe with their ties on . . . the girls couldn't walk in their new shoes. Luckily everyone was in the same boat, we all knew what the other guy was feeling. All of us has friends to help us out. Friends weren't the only ones helping either . . . teachers, parents, sisters, and any one else that happened to be around.

Millions of pictures were taken. Zillions of hugs were given out and received. People were with their friends and with a few people that you didn't know. All of these things added up to that special day. GRADUATION.

From the opposite page.

Wes Cunningham, Mike Anderson, and Joe DiGiorgio appear ready for the days events.

Speaking of being nervous . . . I had to find out if the guys' bathroom was in as much of an uproar as the girls'. As you can see the boys have to primp just as much as the girls do.

In fact, I think the girls primp less than the boys. They just needed the support of these familar walls.

Gina King and Sheli Grimpe are best friends to the end. But commencement means the beginning, so they have nothing to worry about. During this break they are probably planning what to do after the ceremony. Whose open house to go to first and things like that.

Are Jon and Nancy ever apart?? One would think not, according to this photo. They just wanted to spend some time together on this special day.

Here is one of the many helpers . . . Ms. Bartlett helps Vicki Brandenburg with her collar.

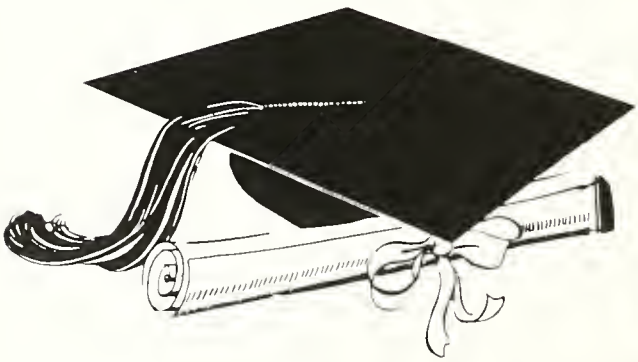
Graduation Memories 1986

A Minute to Reminisce

Seniors anticipate their new beginnings.

Our Senior class together for the last time.



Tammy Estepp enters the gym for the ceremony.

Kathy McDorman receives the citizenship award.

Graduation time means something different to everyone that experiences it. For all of us it was a time to look forward and look back. A time for memories to come rushing back . . . and for new dreams to form.

For most of us the graduation ceremony was the last time to see old pals and friends. Many of us will go away next year, whether it's to college or to the service, or just away. So the ceremony was a very special event. To some of the class it was just another thing to go through before being free.

That day was indeed special to each and every one of us in some way or the other. Maybe it was because you got to see some relatives or close friends that came to town for the ceremony. Maybe it was all of those presents that were waiting to be opened. Who knows. Each of us will remember that day in our own way, forever. Commencement. The end . . . the beginning . . . the memories.

Mr. Dean Craycraft escorts the graduates to their seats.

Teachers

The faculity here at Tecumseh has many roles. They are teachers, advisors, coaches, and sometimes friends . Most important they are normal people. Many times we forget that simple fact. So . . . this page is dedicated to the hard (and not so hard) working souls at THS. May we never again forget the simple facts of life.

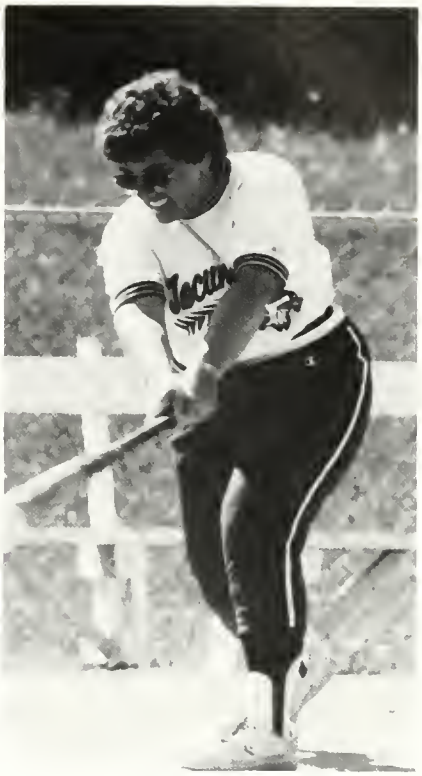
Look — even teachers have to eat the cafeteria food. Is that why Mr. Stoner lost weight??

The staff surprised Mr. Pankake on his birthday. First with cards and balloons . . . then with this "visitor" at the staff meeting. It looks like Mr. Pankake went APE over it.

Buddy Husic tries his hand at coaching. Do you think he is trying to convince the umpires that his team is the best??

Hello Mr. Rogers!!!

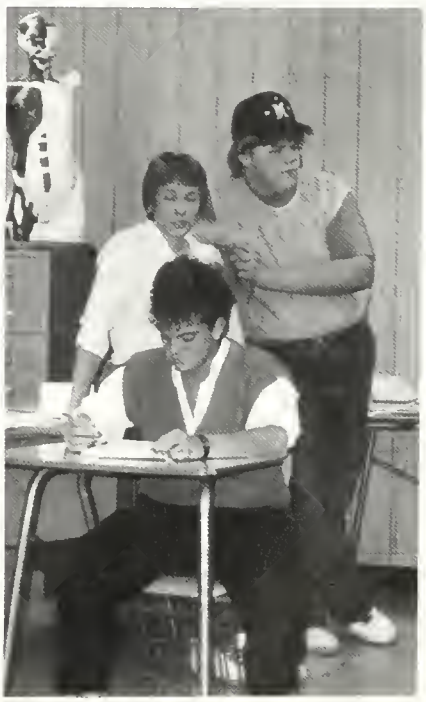
Mr. and Mrs. Abney boogie at Prom.



Ms. Nagel makes every hit count. Here she is warming up the varsity softball team.

Working hard again?? Ms. Michels looks like she could use a break from the computer.

Being a student teacher isn't as easy as it looks.



Wedding

The name of Mrs. Julia Tolliver's class is Marriage and Family. Throughout the year the classes study such things as how to select a mate, how to develop a relationship, and other such topics. Then after this, the students learn how to plan a wedding. Each student must plan a shower or bachelor party, make invitations, reserve a church, pick out a gown . . . just like it was the real thing.

Well, after all this has been studied the REAL thing did take place. Well, almost real. Six students were chosen from all the classes to actually get married. Everything was set up like it was a real ceremony. Invitations were sent to teachers and parents, the reception food was made, the only thing missing was the license. There were even real ministers. Then the day finally arrived . . . everyone got dressed up and watched as their fellow classmates tied the knot.

Three kinds of weddings took place. A civil ceremony, a small, informal wedding, and the big church wedding. After these ceremonies, all parties and guests went upstairs for the reception. Everyone involved had a good time and most people learned a lot from the experience.

Rev. Joseph Quinn performed all of the marriage ceremonies.

Augie and his new bride Shellie seem to enjoy this tradition and are stuffed to the gills.

Bridesmaids and groomsmen are part of the formal, big church wedding.

Lee and Vicki pose before the cutting of the cake, for the first time as Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

Mr. Drew Gross posed as Jodi's father during the ceremony. Here he walks her down the aisle.

Vicki seems to like Lee's fingers . . . but where's the cake????

At the reception, everyone eats up. Evonne and Maria liked the punch, Donita goes for the cheese dip, and the rest of the wedding party gets the cake.

Far left: Jodi and Nick prepare to cut the cake, afterwards the new bride and groom are still friends.

Kovin' Every Minute of Activities!
there are so many clubs to choose from.
these clubs also sponsor dances and other fun things to do. At this one dance, a boy...

Valerie Freeland and Kurt Knupp are named Best Couple by Heidi Brinegar.

Angie Cox and Beth Hutchins show up as Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum.

This year for the first time Tecumseh held a Masquerade dance. It was sponsored by Quill and Scroll, and The Arrowhead.

Even though it was a Masked Ball, few people wore masks, some wore wild make-up and some wore nothing on their faces.

This year's dance was well attended mainly because it gave most people a chance to become something or someone they wish they could be in reality.

This year the dance chairperson Heidi

The Mas

"Don't worry girls the photographer is our friend!" Laurie Woosley seems to be saying.

Mrs. Arnott and Mrs. Wilbert look like they're in the mood for Halloween in their matching witch costumes.

Julie Grafton is all "choked up" about her classmate's werewolf costume.

Brinegar chose some of the best costumes consisting of: Best Couple, Valerie Freeland and Kurt Knupp; Most Out of Character, Tracy Cooper; Most original, Sherri Boswell: Best Over All, Valerie Freeland: The Sillies, John Sawvell.

The dance jams were provided by Mr. Terry Zeller. Mrs. Jean Wenzlaff, The Arrowhead advisor, said most of the money made from the Ball will go to fieldtrips to Bowling Green University and Ohio State University.

ked Ball

Could this be Chandra's future occupation?

John Sawvell is named the Silliest at the Masqurade Ball

Is this a new hall monitor, no it's Rick Jessee!

Steve Miller and Tracy Cooper look really cute in their Devil costumes, along with Sherri Boswell.

Annette Partin gets "FLASHED" by some really shady characters.

The ARROWHEAD Staff

The "Arrowhead" newspaper staff did a great job of producing Tecumseh's monthly paper. They covered all parts of "life" at THS.

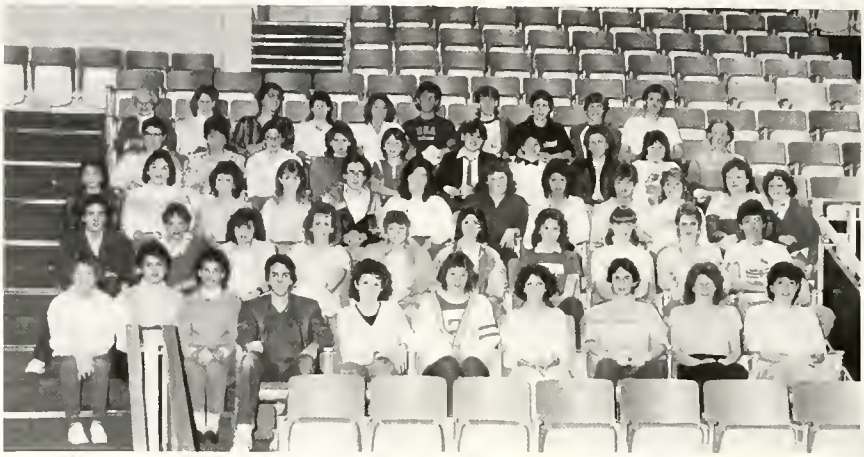
The staff sponsored two dances during the year and all members participated in different events throughout the 85-86 school year.

The advisor was Mrs. Jean Wenzlaff, who is also an English and journalism teacher. "Although the work is difficult and time consuming, the results are worth it," said a staff member.

To all the Eighty-six graduates, the staff wishes the best of luck and the words, "You are important!"

Chris shows his spirit with his "Arrow" apparel.

Rhonda and Anne enjoy their work.



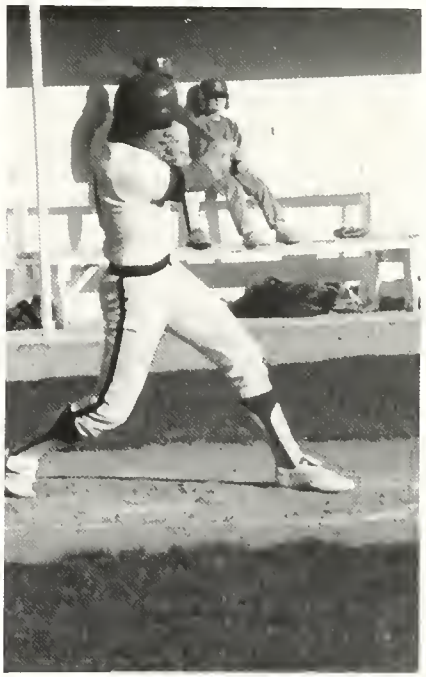
Lori works hard on the layout.

Editor Katrina Storts reaches for the tennis ball.

Mark speaks with ease.

Tecumseh Editors pose for this shot.

What a nerdy group!!!



Gary is as good on the field as his articles in the paper.

Mike Hartsock from T.V. 7 gives a speech to Quill and Scroll.

Now why isn't Gina pinning this award on me?

Quill and Scroll. What does that mean? International Honorary Society For Highschool Journalists is quite a title for students in Quill and Scroll. They all would meet and sponsor dances, and talk over school issues. Members in this years club are as follows:
Mrs. Wenzlaff, Katrina Storts, Chris Daley, Mark Holbrook, Doug Brown, Lori Hyder, Chris Ginter, Barry Rogers, Eric Jarvis, Monica Lay, Beth Jones, Donita Pace, Marilyn Rinker, Kay Horner, Doug Free, Robin Siders, Anne Gillis, Gina King, and Katrin Hedberg.

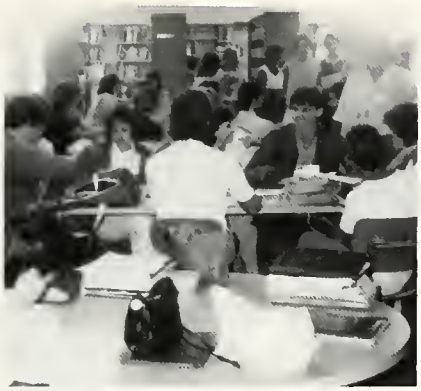
Thanks should be given especially to Mrs. Wenzlaff, Pres — Donita Pace, Vice — Katrina Storts, and Secretary — Gina King for doing fine jobs in making Quill and Scroll to be such a fine club.

QUILL AND SCROLL

MISSION AWARENESS

Mission Awareness had a complete year after doing many things to show concern for people in general. Members are as follows: Cindy Webb, Stephanie Garrison, Shannon Spitler, Sharon Roberson, Claudine Chase, Amy Allingham, Matt Cleveland, and Bryce Petty.

What exactly gets done by these M.A. students?



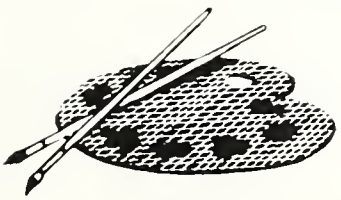
National Honor Society

During one of the monthly meetings, NHS members discuss the up-coming dance.

National Honor Society is an honorary club. You must be invited to join. Students must have a certain grade point average, be involved in activities at school and within the community. NHS held formal induction to honor its new inductees. Throughout the year, the club sponsors a variety of activities. The students are in charge of the annual Sadie Hawkins dance. Also the members have made a student directory to sell.

Muse Machine

Muse Machine is a fairly new club. This was only its second year here at Tecumseh. Muse Machine offers a totally unique format to the students. It exposes the members to the fine arts. As we all know fine arts are pretty rare in New Carlisle. During the school days some of the fine arts performers came to the school for the in-school shows. Students were delighted to see such performances as the Dayton Contemporary Dance Company, and The Dayton Philharmonic String Ensemble. Students could also purchase out-of-school tickets to the real performances. Some of the shows students went to were the Dayton Ballet and Great Expectations. Students were chosen to be team captains for the certain performances. The team captain had to greet the performers, sell tickets and so forth. Mrs. Jean Wenzlaff was the advisor of this special club.



SADIE HAWKINS

The annual Sadie Hawkins dance went off as scheduled. Everyone showed up in their "down on the farm" clothes, ready to have some fun!

This is not your ordinary T.H.S. dance. First was, it was held in the girls gym. It was not all just dancing, there were many games such as the sack race, piggy-back race, and the tug-of-war, in which the Sophomore guys and girls won.

There was also the "hubby" chase! This was where the girls chased the guys in order to get them to marry them!

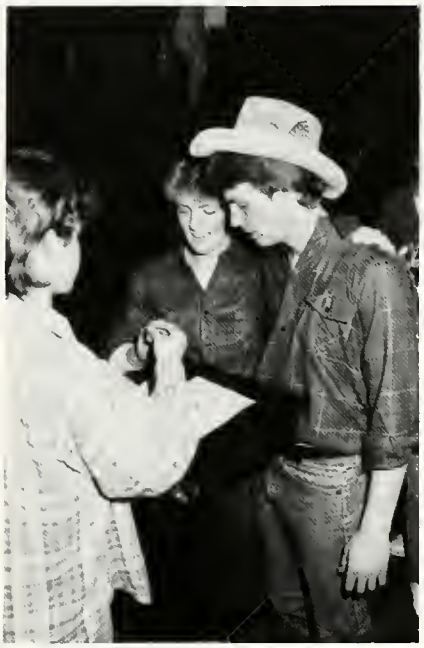
Chris Moore and Corinna Parr cross the finish, and hope that they have won.

These Senior girls look tough to beat, (having trouble Beth)!

These guys know what's gonna happen to them if they get caught tonight!

Quick from the start, these people burn down the gym.

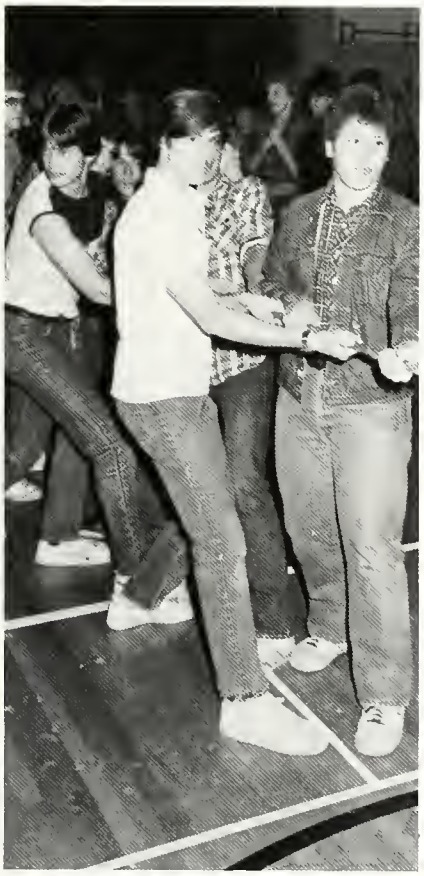
Annette finally caught her "hubby", now where are ya going for your honeymoon?



Andy Sharp and Tracy Windham make a great effort, but was not able to pull this one off.

Susan, that's a mighty strong horse you're riding! Sorry Kevin!

Tim is that anyway to treat Sherri?



These Sophomore guys win again!

Oh Well, Seniors are still the best!

Mad River Ski Resort was the site for this year's festivities of the ski club. This resort is about an hour away but the trip is definitely worth it!! Every Thursday, these fourteen members would pile in cars with their coats, mittens, long underwear, and in some cases, skis and boots and head up to Bellefountain. This year, everyone in the club braved Sugarbush and Mad River Mountain, the two most difficult runs at the resort. After six hours of strenuous skiing, they all crashed on the way home. Needless to say, many morning classes were skipped on Fridays.

Here are some avid skiiers buying their '86 ski wardrobe.

Problem Solvers

The main goal of the Problem Solvers is to, of course, solve problems, and to make it to regional competitions. This club must work as a team to find solutions to sample problems. Some of these problems they had to solve involved the problem of starvation and animal extinction. Their advisor was Mrs. Spears (until she left), and members of this club were Chip Simpson, Katrina Hedberg, Julie Zambok, Matt Turner, Doug Brown, Joe Britton, Rob Williams, Marcy Roppe, Renee Wilson, Eric Pencil, Chandra Appis, and Ann Wehner.

F.C.A.

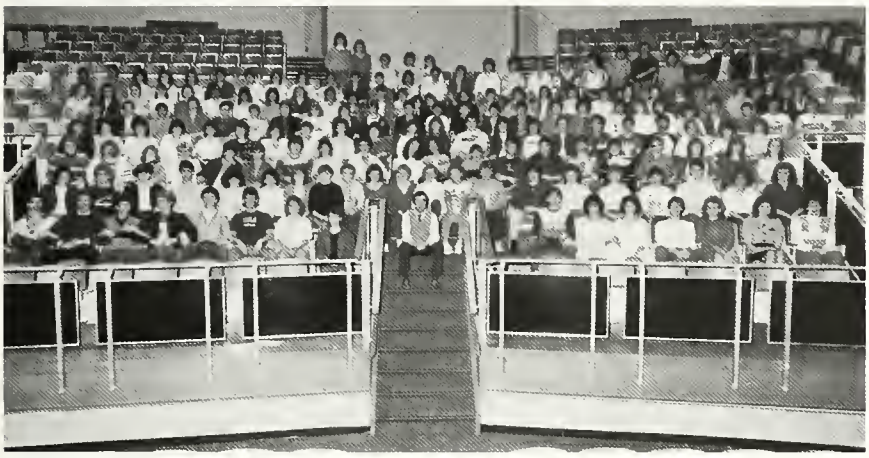
Jana and Andy sure make great tables.

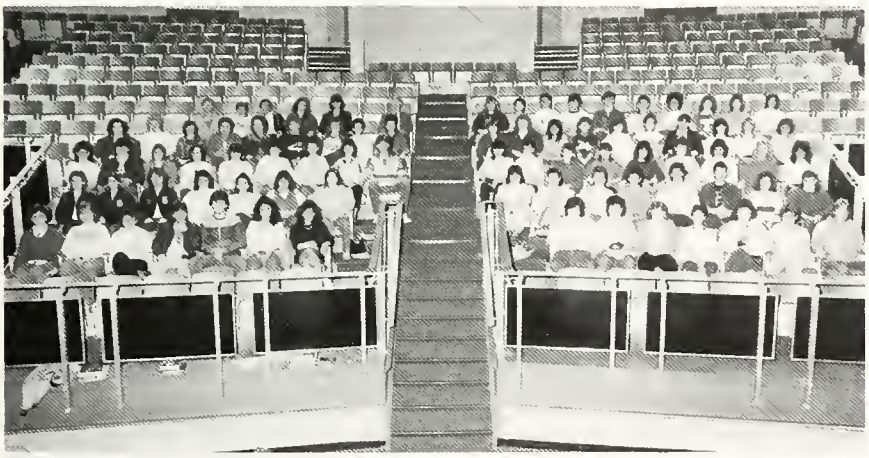
Having a little problem with your ice cream boys?

The Fellowship of of Christian Athletes had a much improved year. In the past, the Ugly Person contest has caused a few conflicts. This year was controversial on whether or not there would be another Ugly Man.

The winners were "The Fidgets" and Mr. Castin has decided to continue the contest.

The F.C.A. also had a hay ride, a Christmas party and a spring pool party. They also went to the Reds game.

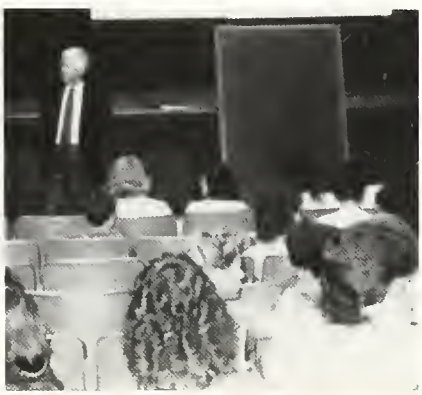




Christian Fellowship

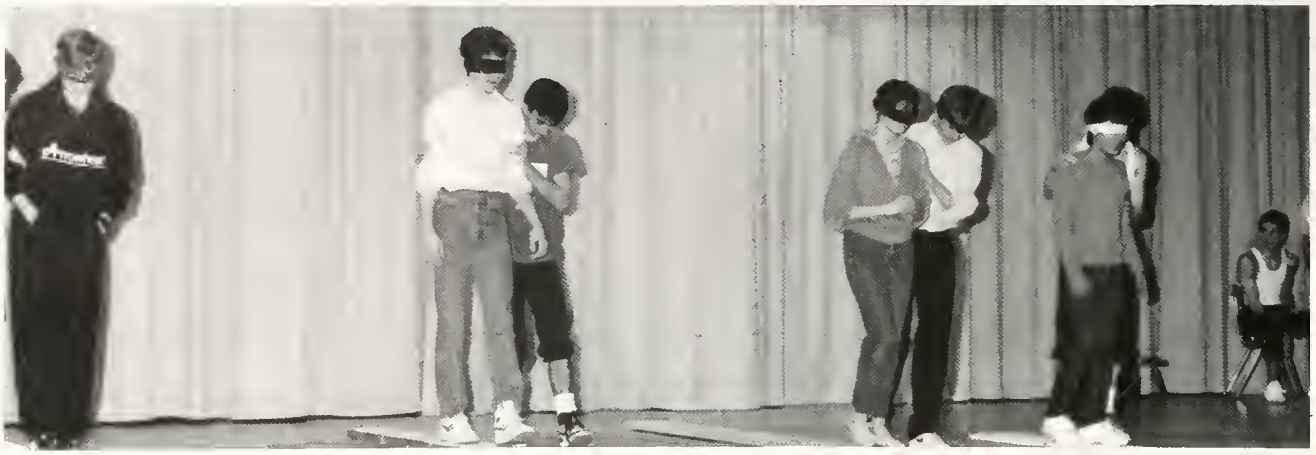
Christian Fellowship met once a month throughout the year. Rev. Glenn Greenwood was the advisor again this year. With a name like that . . . who else would be qualified to run the club? During their meetings the members discussed topic relevent to the club. Christian Fellowship and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes are closely related, both trying to show that people can work and play together in a nice environment.

Rev. Glenn Greenwood was the advisor of Christian Fellowship again this year.



Mr. Greenwood starts the monthly meeting with a few words to the members.

CRAZINESS AT ITS BEST!

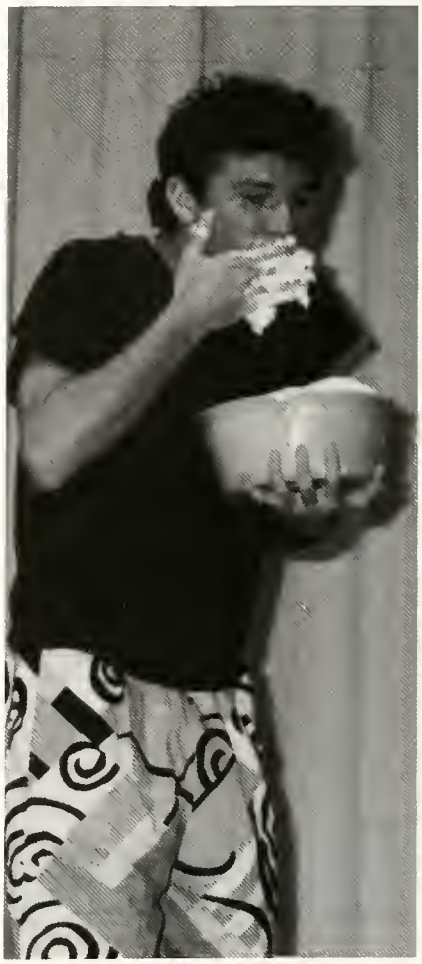


Scott Semler begins to walk Rob Holbrook off the stage.

Terrence Crowe, the ultimate "Marshmallow King".

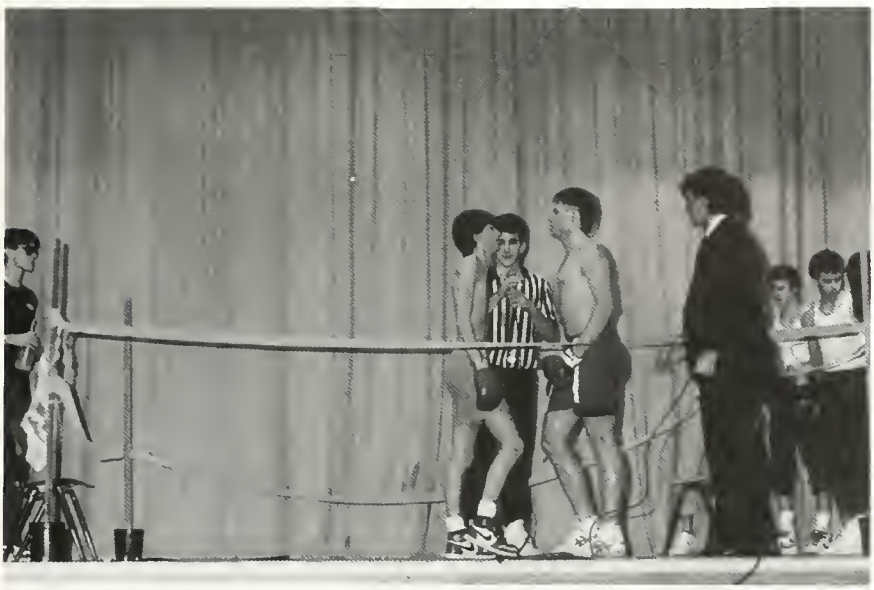
Is Mr. Pankake really the ugliest man alive?

Rusty Randall leisurly eats some ice cream.

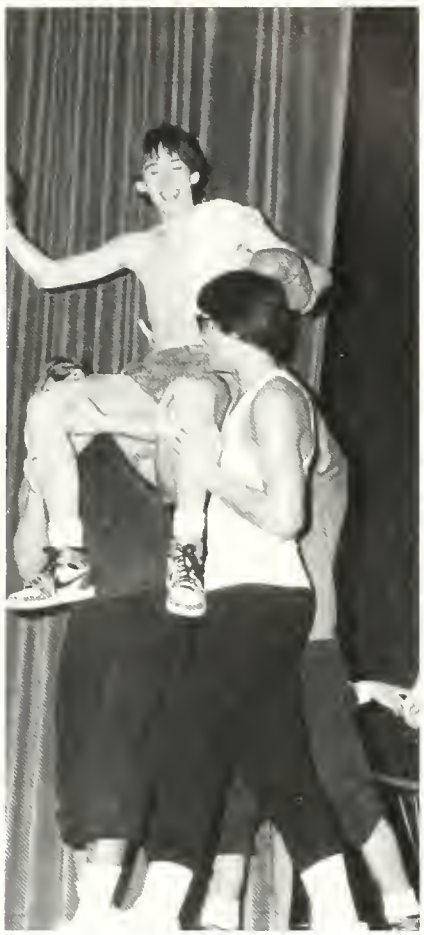


The ice cream gang goes to work on Randall's head.

The Arrow shuffle performs on stage about as well as they did on the field.



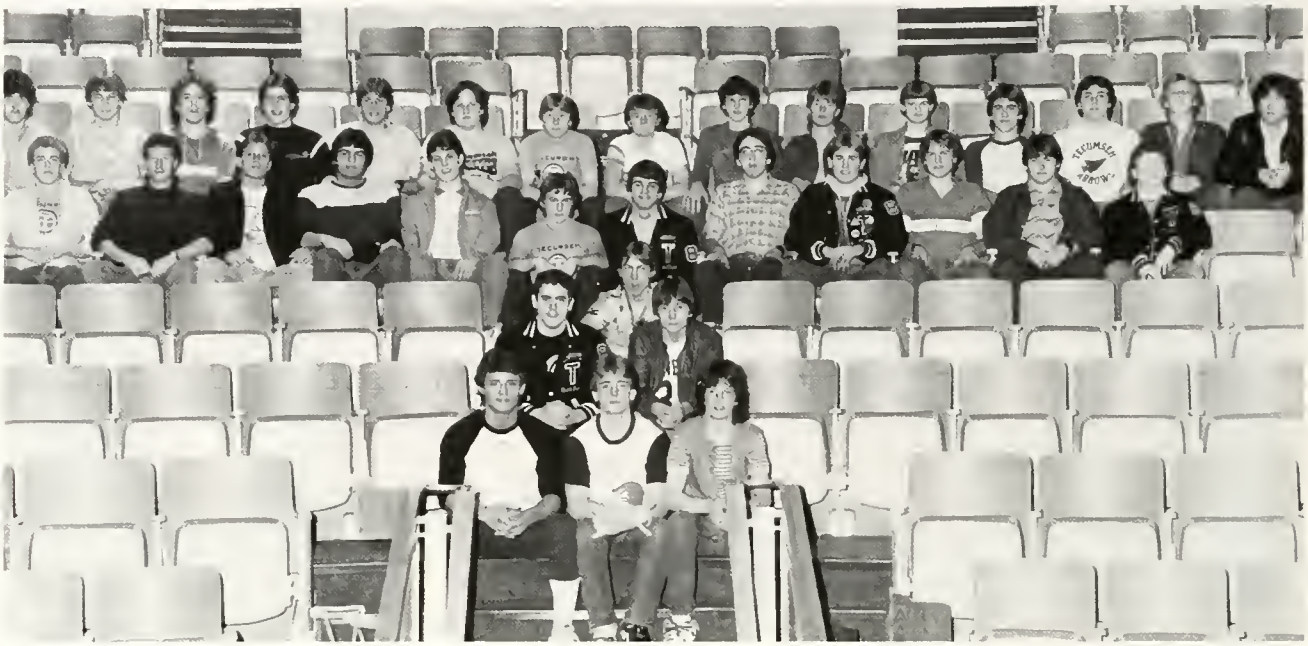
Ron Romage before the victory . . .



. . . and celebrating afterwards.

The winner of the Ugly Man — The Fidgets.

VARSITY "T"



Dwight Miller was this years Varsity T advisor.

One of the many Varsity T members Mike Heironimus poses with his parents.

"D" Garrett relaxes with his friends.

Todd Morris and Ron Christmann both participated in Varsity T.

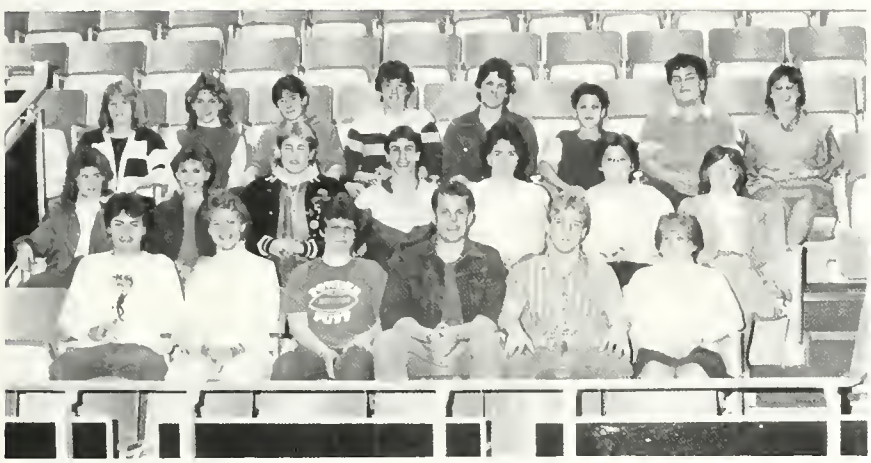
Poor Mike sure looks lonely reading the comics all by himself.

But wait, His good ole friend Tarence decides to be a pal and read too.

LIBRARY

The Library Staff this year had an enjoying time. They did everything from sorting books to stamping cards to sharpening pencils and many other hard laborous jobs such studying other student's study habits.

Library staff from left to right — Kelly Wagner, Kelly Worthen, Joe Risley, Duane Stitzle, Kevin Studebaker, Mike Magsaysay, Matt Turner, Mrs. Garringer, Heather Bradley, Amy Hayes, Brad West, Kenny Clark, Kay Boussom, Jason Roach, Mrs. Gulden, J.R. Kunkle, Carol Dement, Sherrie Woodward, Tom Sawvel, John Pfarrer, and Mrs. Monroe.



Sometimes the library is actually used for studying and looking up information for a class project.

READING IS LEARNING, OPENING YOUR MIND TO NEW HORIZONS. A BOOK CAN TAKE YOU TO ANOTHER PART OF THE GLOBE OR EVEN TO ANOTHER WORLD.

Santa's Dance

These Senior Guys let out a little of their Christmas spirit, while rocking out at the Christmas Dance.

If you had a great Christmas, then you must have attended the Christmas Dance.

On the night of Dec. 14 the spirit of Christmas filled the cafe of Tecumseh.

The people came to have a great time and they did. The dancing was fast and slow, as so were the songs. The hits were played by our very own resident D.J., the one and only, Mr. Zeller.

This Tecumseh graduate Todd Tesch returns with his date "Mrs. Claus"?

Susan Atwood, one of Santa's great little helpers!

Alan McDorman and Janel Miller take a rest from all of the activities.

Tamara Schiller and Medy Lacsina "dance the night away".

Danny Whitt and his beloved Dianne Alig Snuggle like elves!

Sweethearts

This sweetheart of a dance was a very heart-lifting experience proudly sponsored by the Student Council.

The couples came from everywhere to enjoy the music played by DJ Terry Zeller.

Before the dance many couples attended quite, candlelight dinners for two at various restaurants.

Accounding to the advisor, "The Valentines Dance was a dance to remember and something that the students will always cherish."

Kevin Hammonds and Annette Partin discuss their evening plans.

Beth, Trent, Mark, Dee and Monica; the Valentines Day "Partiers".

All that dancing made Beth and Mary hungry.

Clark and Tara enjoy the dance.

CHESS CLUB

General Livestock wins a big award.

The THS FFA Dept. had its most successful year ever. They had 4 judging teams in the top ten at the State contest. The Poultry team consisting of Mike Albaugh, Tammy Davis, and Sherry Minnick, finished 9th out of 92 teams with Mike Albaugh being the 9th high ind. The Dairy products team finished 4th out of 65 team participation. Team members were Steve Angel, Sandy Robinson and Rebecca Johnson. Steve scored 8th high ind. The meet team finished 3rd out of 92 teams. Team members in this dept. were Marilyn Rinker, Dave Cain, Gene Price, with Marilyn being 3rd high ind. The General Livestock team finished 2nd out of 212 teams earning a trip to represent Ohio at the Big E in Mass. Team members were Bryan Fifrock, Steve Johnson, and Kevin Studebaker with Bryan being the 4th high ind. out of 610 contestants.

This year also was a scholarship year. Marilyn Rinker won $1000.00 scholarship as well as a $200 FFA scholarship. Dave Cain won a nice $200 scholarship as well.

Ruth Johnson won an outstanding award this year. She won the most looked up to award, the State proficiery award in Sales and service. Ruth will take her talents to the National Convention in the Fall of 1986.

Mr. Finfrock deserves alot of recognition for being an outstanding teacher, and friend to the students in FFA.

Marilyn accepts a $1000 award.

During Spirit Week, even the sophomores get into the act. It seems Baby Day was a success.

Monica and Mike are really enjoying this section of the paper. Oh but what is that word???

Susan and Debbie give each other advice on how to apply make-up. Lookin' good girls!!

These girls look MARVELOUS!!! Do you always dress up for school.?

These Freshmen seem to think that they're number one . . . we know different.

Which one to choose??? All of these MEN look great but only one can be the winner.

During one of the pep rallies, these guys pose for the camera. Say cheese.

Does everyone remember how it felt to save Resssi Annie?? This student is doing a fine job of it.

Keep it down girls . . . you'll distract the guys on the field.

Freshmen can boogie just like everyone else. She thinks maybe even better!!

Cliff Lockhart was the Senior Powder Puff Coach. He and Augie taught the girls real plays.

OFFICE Workers:

While Mrs. Christmanis at lunch, Missy Bowman handles the problems of the office.

Mary Solomon worked in Mr. Hammonds office during seventh period. Mary worked hard dodging all the shots some people took at her.

Student Secretaries were a very important part of the office scene. Every office had at least one office worker for each period, and most of the time there were two or three per office. These workers weren't just roaming the halls all of the period. They had a variety of jobs. Students collected the attendence sheets, did filing, ran errands, answered the phone and other such things. Without the student workers the regular secretaries would have gone CRAZY. The workers were as follows . . .

Computer Club

This club is new this year. Students would work on the computers during activity period. Ms. Franklin was the advisor for the club. Students would help her record grades and help program the computers for the regular computer classes.

OWE

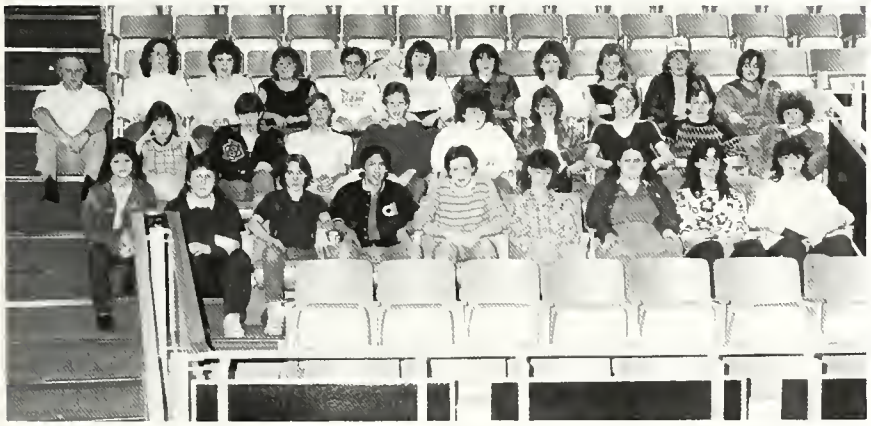
OWE stands for occupational work experience. And what that means is that these students would be at school half of the day and then they would go to work the other half. All of the jobs were out of school. The students would come to school in the morning and have all of their classes finished by third or forth period. Then they would leave the school grounds for their real jobs. They were working just like the other workers. Mr. Bob Rutan was their teacher.



OWA

OWA stands for occupational work adjustment. And what that means is that these students would be at school for their classes and then they go to work somewhere here at the school. Most of the work was done for teachers in one of the buildings. Some of them worked in the cafeterias. This class is designed to help students adjust to working and studying almost at the same time. Mr. Raider and Mrs. Sharp were the teachers of this class.

OWA

The third annual MORP dance was held on Friday, April 25 in the Hawke Cafeteria. MORP is a fun dance because it has almost no rules. MORP is Prom spelled backwards and that's exactly what this dance was all about . . . the total opposite of Prom!!!!! There were no formal clothes, or fancy decorations (unless you call the flowered toilet paper fancy). At the MORP anything was considered normal. People dressed up, down, punk & punk-rocker!! Many broke the school rule and wore their JAMS as part of a Hawaiian outfit. Prizes were awarded to the best costumes . . . and of course the MORP queen and King were selected. This year's queen was Ann (cha-cha) Weihner and the king was (for the second year) Yoshi T. Best of luck to our new royalty! May they rule supreme!!!!

Yoshi shows some of his new subjects just how he got to be king. It's all in the hair!

Queen for 1986 is Ann. Here she proudly shows the crowd her fabulous crown.

The group Ground Control supplied the tunes for the dance. They played a variety of hits from all the charts.

These girls know how to keep cool when the action gets hot! JAMS were the latest thing to hit THS.

Tara and Sharon seem to think it's a hoe-down.

Does this mean that the Erics are having fun????

Her royal highness demonstrates how the peasants should boogie. Look at Chris go . . .

Even couples had a good time at MORP. Hey Stephen, where did you pick her up?????

The Arrowhead staff found out that decorating with TP was only half of the fun . . . the other half was the cleaning!!

On the Edge of a Dream

There is no feeling like the feeling you get when prom time comes around.

The theme of the prom says it all. Is this real or am I dreaming?

It's the last big night for the seniors and a brand new experience for the juniors. This is a dream that no one who attended will ever forget.

Hands Across America

Tecumseh was very proud to be a part of hands across America. Hands Across America was a stop hunger campaign to feed all of the starving in America. Tecumseh High School had our very own mile.

Hands Across America turned out to be a very successful event and helped many in the process! Thanks to every one who participated.

at this performance...

Marchers Leave their Mark

This year was a "new beginning" for the Tecumseh Arrow Marching Band and Guard. The band, under the direction of Mr. Terry Maxson, played at all football games and did a new half time show at every home game. Including a special Halloween show written by the senior members. The band was also very successful this year in competition. Competing always against themselves, they hoped to better their own score from the previous competition. Finally achieving their highest score at the Marching Bands of America National Competition at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Marching Band attended Band Camp at Ohio Northern University, in Ada, Ohio. This year, band camp saw many dances, skit night, and a freshman bathing beauty contest with the guys wearing the girls bathing suits. Band camp ended with a special performance for the parents back at the high school stadium.

The season ended with an indoor concert and an award banquet later that evening. Many new awards presented by the staff added to the evening, plus a last tribute to the senior class.

"The band has a lot to look forward to in the future. This is really only the beginning of what I want to do with the band, and it was a very successful start," stated Mr. Maxson. "We have a lot of fun and do a lot of hard work, but the friendship gained in the group makes the hard work seem easy. It's a great experience in the band."

The Arrows take the field in competition.

Director, Terry Maxson presents field commanders Doug Lawler and Dee Cassidy, also feature twirler Sheli Grimpe.

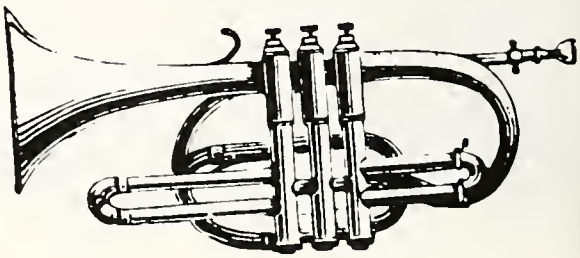
Bands

The indoor band program is a big part of the music that goes on at Tecumseh. There are many bands to choose from, each to fill a different need. A variety of music is played in each band, from the slow moving waltzes to the upbeat jazzes. The bands give a number of performances throughout the year. Two of the big ones are the annual Christmas Concert and the Coffee Concert. Band members can also perform in the musical orchestra if they want to.

Doug Lawler accompanies the group on the piano. He has done so for many years.

Mr. Allan Fetherolf insturcts the band to hold that note . . . just a little longer.

Mr. Fetherolf is also the head of the music department. Here he takes a bow for the band.



Renee and Mr. Maxon look intent on their playing. They are in the musical orchestra for "The Big Game".

Mr. Fetherolf is telling the woodwinds to go light through this part.

I think the flutes have melody on this song. The Pep Band played at all the home games.

During the musical, the orchestra played an instrumental part wouldn't you say?????

Dougette and Medy dress up.

This year's play "Girl Crazy" was an excellent production, written by Anne Coulters in the 40's and directed here by Mr. Copes and Mr. Bishop.

The story is about a young playboy from New York (Danny) played by Tayo Switzer, who moves to the rough west. He finds living in the west hard, but receives help from his cab driver (Loui) played by Chris Chirico, and the ranch caretaker (Jake) played by Doug McDonald. The whole story through out includes Danny's girlfriends and Loui's girlfriend whom he actually doesn't like, which he shows in a funny way. The story really gets hilarious when Chris Chirico plays different characters like a cab-driver, a cowboy, a sheriff, an indian, and a super-funny woman. The story ends up happy when the guys find the girls they love, and end up living at the ranch.

Mr. Copes was really pleased with the play as he writes, "Although I have worked with casts that have more natural ability than this one, I have never worked with a cast that had more dedication. They overcame tremendous obstacles and put together a very fine and respectable show. And in the process they taught me a lesson — that although I felt my best work had been done, there is always the future — always the time for greater accomplishments."

Let's all hope for a great play like this next year, and hope to have Mr. Jim Copes with us.

I just can't hold her any longer!

This year's musical "The Big Game" turned out well, especially because of being orchestrated for the first time, and being its first performance with a high school cast. Allan Fetherolf did a fine job directing the vocals, along with Tim Rowe doing stage direction. The show though wouldn't be the same without orchestra direction from Pat Chastain. The music got the show moving. The songs were all well put together, and humor was added through most of these songs.

Our THS choir did a fine job and showed exceptional ability. Mr. Fetherolf worked hard with these students and was very pleased after the show. The choir had a great time preparing for the show, not only because being around friends, but because they learned alot.

Check out the pretty underwear.

The audience of each performance no doubt loved the show; Laughter was the mood that supported such entertainment — Entertainment that showed great talent from our own THS students. Let's all hope for a great show like this next year.

Lisa and Wes show real style, but what's with the tie Wes?

Uhh, Does anyone know my next line?

Wes finally gets some respect at THS.

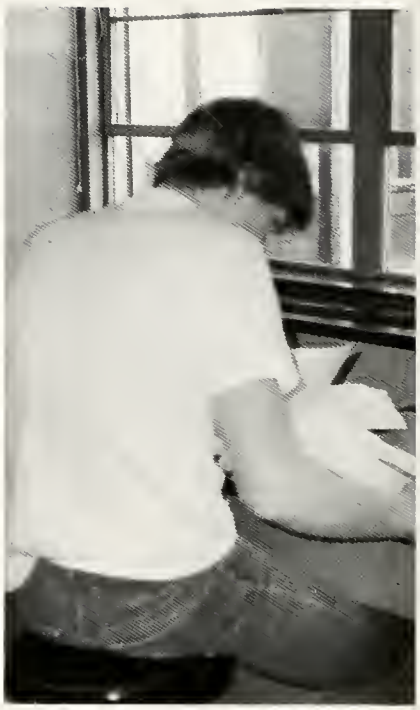
The 1985-86 Trail Staff is pleased to bring you "Lovin' Every Minute".

The staff loved every minute of preparing this book from a work shop at Urbana College to having to work into the summer.

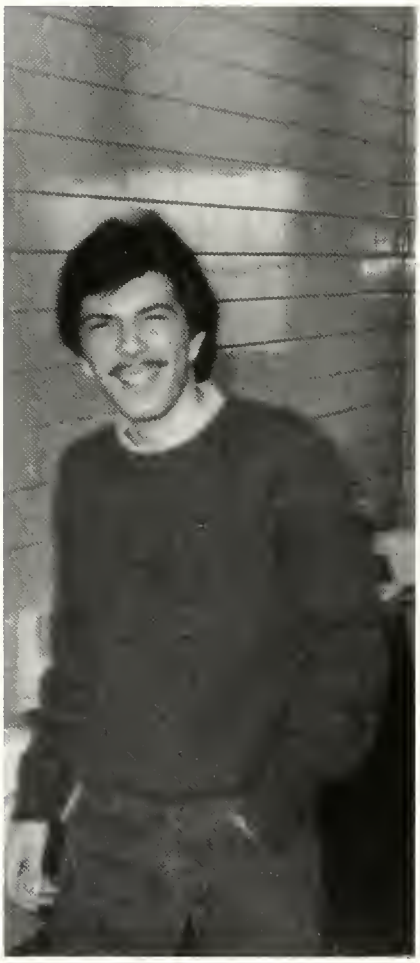
The 1985-86 staff members would like to give a special thanks to Mr. Flemming for giving his time to help out in the class.

The Trail Staff had a lot of good times and a lot of hard times but altogether they did "Love Every Minute."

Brian, Clark and Scott plan their next move.



Sam did some heavy research for this layout.



"What are you doing?"

They always said the yearbook room looked like it was turned upside-down.

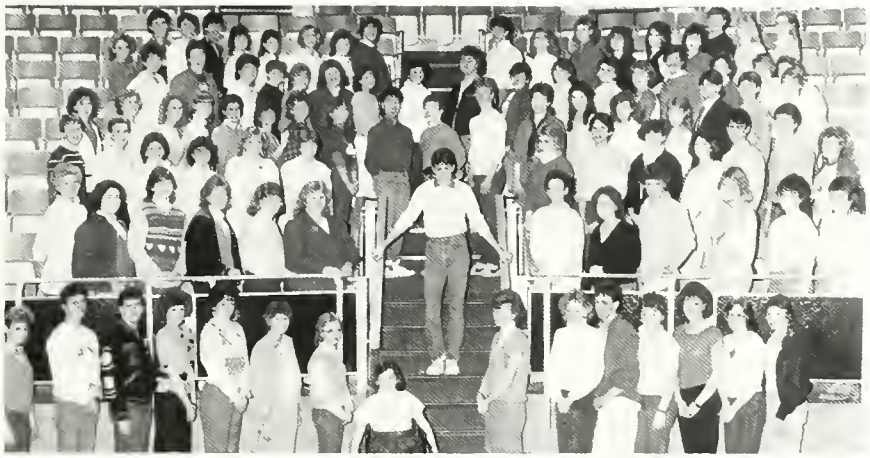
AFS

Mr. Dean Craycraft was one of the advisors of the club.

Jeppe Drepps, an exchange student from Denmark, was at Tecumseh for a few months.

AFS stands for American Field Service. This club met once a month to study and talk about other countries. They had foreign exchange students from near-by schools come and speak to them about their home country. Many slides were shown from all over the world.



Newspaper Staff

The newspaper, the Arrowhead, has its own spread, but somehow these pictures didn't make that page. These pictures show the whole staff of the paper. In the top picture, everyone is shown that was on the 1986 staff. Included in the picture are the jounalism students that wrote the majority of the stories for the paper. Those kids are first year students. If they make the grades, they have the chance to go on to be on the second and third year staffs. That is where the editors are chosen. As shown in the bottom picture. Each section has an editor that assigns the stories, proof reads them, sends copy to the printer, and finally lays the page itself out. All of this takes a lot of time and it's a huge responsibility!!! The monthly paper kept the students and the community informed on the happening of Tecumseh. This year the paper won several awards for its excellence.

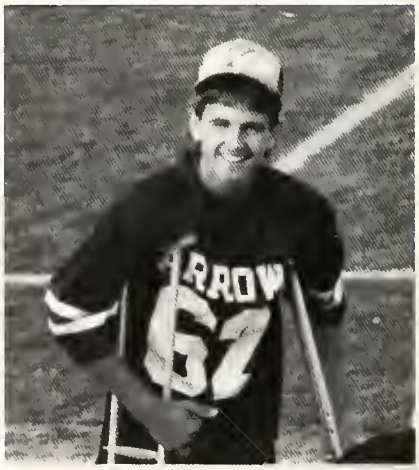
Due to the misplacement of pictures, this section has been placed out of order. We apologize to anyone we might have offended.

STUDENTS LIVE LIFE

Our Tecumseh wrestlers sit, wait, and watch for the excitement to begin.

Some Seniors forget that they are in the parking lot . . . not the football field.

Finally, the true spirit of our team shows as they get into the match. Really they're trying to scare the other team.



here, the team makes a huddle Indian style to show the fans how creative they can be.

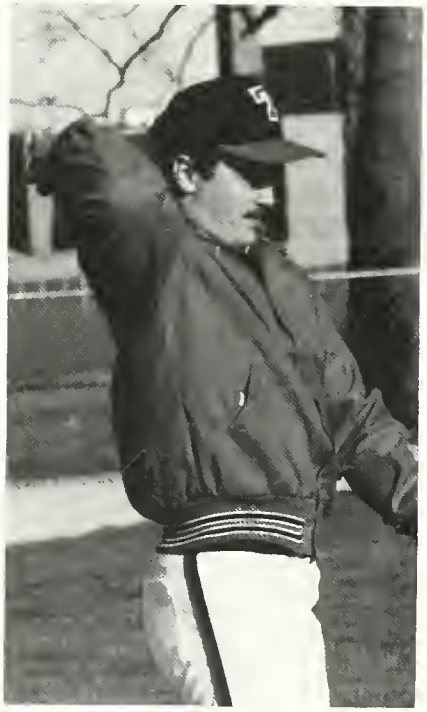
Dave Firman tries his best to help out the team even though he is on the injured list.

Mr. Lowstetter and his band of four-legged pals, try to become the roving Tecumseh hospital.

Chris Moore is quickly taken care of by the medic, after his accident on the field.

The 1986 Seniors do their warm-up exercises for the powder puff game.

Looks like Tom is going to need some medical attention after iron-fisted Ronnie TKI'd him!!



"Come on boys", I said walk this way . . . and I mean it!!

Round and About T.H.S.

Trent Tesch in his natural habitat "hall roaming"!

This is the time that all Sophomores wait for, their very own classring. These students line up to take a peak.

Is this the athletic club of THS or rejects from the Breakfast Club?

Maria Gallion shows the proper way to "stuff your face"!

Evonne Dudley does her imitation of Miss America!

These girls prove that even Freshmen decorate their lockers!

Laura Jones finally gets to meet her idol Prince (just kidding Von)!

Now doesn't this look like fun! Yes, Mr. White we love to play with rocks!

These Juniors show that their not just regular underclassmen!

The beat of Tecumseh plays on!

1986 BEST OF'S

Kelly Grandstaff and Clark Snyder were voted Biggest Apple Polishers.

Katrina Storts and Brett Collins seem to have the Soggiest Shoulders.

Michelle Silence and Eric Jarvis were selected as the Best Dressed people of the Senior class.

Tayo Switzer and Kathy McDorman were selected as the Trend Setters of Tecumseh.

Chris Daly and Suzanne Aleva were voted the Dizziest. Suzanne thought Chris had enough dizz for the picture.

So Havana, I'm
Lovin' Every minute
of 1986!
There is so much going on this year. The Statue of Liberty's facelift, all of the helping (Hands Across America, Farm Aid, and Amnesty International), and the royal wedding of Andy & Fergie.
Other events like the US-Soviet Summit, bombing Libia, and the shuttle tragedy we will never forget.
Most important though was the year we spent at Tecumseh.
So like Loverboy, we were
Lovin' Every minute of it!
Love,
Do
